On Saturday December 11, 2004, the Victims Assistance Center will sponsor the "47th Annual Ebony Fashion Fair Show" at the Kankakee High School Auditorium, Kankakee, IL. This elegant world-renowned event entitled "Living It Up" will begin at 8:00pm.

It is with great pleasure that we announce this year's honorary co-chairpersons, Mr. Robert Turner, former Principal of Lorenzo Smith Elementary in St Anne, IL and Mt. Dennis Milirons, President and CEO of Riverside Medical Center, both of whom have been great contributors to the community and supporters of the Victims Assistance Center.

This fundraiser is a wonderful event for the Kankakee Community, but most importantly, the funds raised are to assist Kankakee residents who are victims of crime. The Victim's Assistance center of Kankakee Count is committed to providing the delivery of the highest lever of service possible to all crime victims without regard to race, creed, color, gender, religion, or political persuasion. For the reason we ask that, you support our efforts by contributing your business or organization advertisement to the event's program book.

Community involvement is vital to the success of this fundraiser, and out community resource, ad book provides an opportunity to advertise your business or organization in direct support of a worthy chartable effort. We will use any black and white photos, business cards, or previous ad including coupons and other specials offers.

The DEADLINE for submitting your ad is November 12, 2004. Please call the Victims Assistance centered at 815-933-0469.
